

WORKFORCE INNOVATION AND OPPORTUNITY ACT

Rights Handout for Registrants, Applicants, and Participants

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IS THE LAW

Under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), no individual may be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, subjected to discrimination under, or denied employment in the administration of, or in connection with, any program or activity because of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, sex stereotyping, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, political affiliation or belief. It is also unlawful to discriminate against any beneficiary of programs receiving money under Title I of the WIOA on the basis of citizenship/status as a lawfully admitted immigrant authorized to work in the United States or his or her participation in any program or activity receiving money from WIOA Title I.

The program or activity must not discriminate in any of the following areas: deciding who will be admitted or have access to any WIOA Title I financially assisted program or activity; providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity.

HOW TO FILE A COMPLAINT OF DISCRIMINATION

You must file your complaint, in writing, within 180 days from the date you believe the alleged discriminatory action happened. You may file your complaint with the State-level EO Officer or the Director of the Civil Rights Center (CRC) of the US Department of Labor.

If you choose to file at the State level, you may use the Office of Equal Opportunity Complaint Form available at: <https://scworks.org/about-us/equal-opportunity>. Mail, email, or fax your complaint to:

If you file your written complaint with the State-level EO Officer, you must wait until you receive a written Notice of Final Action or until 90 days have passed (whichever is sooner) before filing with the Civil Rights Center. In the event you receive a Notice of Final Action and are dissatisfied with the decision contained therein, you may file a written complaint with CRC within 30 days of the date on which you received the Notice of Final Action. In the event you do not receive a Notice of Final Action within 90 days of your complaint, you do not have to wait for the written Notice before filing a complaint with CRC. However, you must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after you filed your original complaint).

NOTE: You may request assistance in preparing your written complaint. You may have legal representation and/or witnesses to support your position. You may present evidence.

RIGHT TO FILE A GRIEVANCE/COMPLAINT

You also have the right to file a grievance/complaint over matters that do not involve discrimination. For example, you may file a grievance if you feel that you have been treated unfairly, denied access to any WIOA program or activity, or if you feel that there has been a violation of the WIOA, its regulations, or any applicable grant or training agreement.
