EXPUNGEMENT CLINIC AND RESOURCE FAIR

SECOND CHANCE EMPLOYERS ON SITE

- Obtain a certified court disposition from the court that heard the charges
- Under most circumstances, a person can receive only one expungement for a conviction
- In some cases, fees apply. Please note that we will not be accepting money at the expungement workshop. The processing fee is non-refundable
- A complete application does not guarantee a charge will be removed from a criminal record
- All paperwork will be destroyed after 90 days from the application date
- Many charges are not eligible for expungement, including traffic offenses.

5:30 - 7:00 PM

- OTHER THINGS TO CONSIDER:
- A person can have a criminal record even if they were never put in handcuffs or booked at the local detention center
 - You can still have a criminal record if you have never been to court
 - Dismissed charges still need to be expunged
 - A criminal record includes both arrest and court dispositions

Brought to you by Councilman Phillip M. Taylor, Sr. in collaboration with the following:
